BILLIARDS & SNOOKER

UPDATE - The Annual Snooker Tournament

The final of the Annual Snooker Handicap is soon to be played and this will mark the end of another fantastic tournament. Doug Jordan, who is back after a long absence and Paddy Morgan have done a fantastic job in making this year's tournament run as smoothly as ever.

This year's final will be between Mike Cummings and David Cox. David played superbly to defeat Barry Jarrett 2-0 after beating last year's winner Peter Twigg in the quarter finals. Barry had a dream run through the year but was unfortunate to meet an in form Cox who looks the goods for this year's place on the board.

David will have to play well though to beat Mike Cummings who has spent many long hours in the room practising. Mike defeated Rod Foord in the quarters and went on to defeat Steve Woodley 2-1 in the semis coming back strongly from a loss in the first frame. It was an unfortunate ending for Steve's year but the run of the balls wasn't going his way. Mike capitalised on the slightest opportunities to claw his way back and win 2-1.

Congratulations and good luck to both David Cox and Mike Cummings for the final and we wish all defeated players well for next year's tournament. Congratulations also to both Paddy and Doug for another exceptional tournament.

BILLIARDS HANDICAP

Last year's winner, Denis Pidcock, was exceedingly fortunate in his win over Andrew Bald in the Billiards Handicap. Denis had to draw on his years of experience to beat the younger rookie but he will be pushed even harder in his upcoming match against John Gowran.

The two Twiggs, Peter and Mark, are still in, Peter defeated Bob Richards and Mark defeated Bruce Cox in games which were hotly contested. Barry Jarrett has his second chance at a title after surviving a tough match against one of the Snooker Club's elder statesmen, Arthur O'Connor.

INTERCLUB TOURNAMENT

Tattersall's were defeated 4-6 by NSW Sports in the final of the Interclub Tournament played on 17 September. The team played well but were outclassed by an inform Sports Club who had only lost 1 match throughout the year.

The team should be congratulated on managing to secure a place in the final for the second successive year. The competition is always tough but friendly and our players always seem to be able to rise to any occasion. The Club was represented this year by Andrew Corbett, Eddie Crane, Mark Twigg, Frank Galanos and Andrew Bald (captain).

THE CHRISTMAS HANDICAP

The draw for the Christmas Handicap Tournament is on the board in the Snooker Room and matches will commence shortly.

BILLIARDS AND SNOOKER CHAMPIONSHIPS

Andrew Griffin won this year's Snooker Championship defeating Andrew Corbett in the final. This is the first time for Andrew Griffin who is a recent addition to the Snooker Club and by the look of things, we could see his name on the board in years to come.

John Simpson won the Billiards Championship for yet another year proving that he is clearly one of the most persistent and proficient members of the Snooker Club. John has won both the Snooker and Billiards Championships a number of times and his name will be a familiar one for years to come. Congratulations to both Andrew Griffin and John Simpson on their respective wins.

CLUB ART

ARTIST - LYNNE BOYD
PAINTING - DUSK WAS FALLING

Lynne Boyd was born in Melbourne in 1953. She is a dedicated painter and printmaker who has been exhibiting her work in solo and group shows since 1985.

Lynne Boyd studied at the Victorian College of the Arts in Melbourne in 1980 until 1983 and then completed Postgraduate studies from 1983 until 1984.

The artist is represented in the National Gallery of Australia, the National Gallery of Victoria and numerous state and regional galleries as well as institutional and private collections in Australia and Hong Kong.

This work exemplifies the artists' consistent exploration of colour, light & ambience. The artist has been painting her nearby Port Phillip Bay surrounds for the past ten or so years. This particular painting Dusk was falling #5 evokes the poetic and evocative mood of the overwhelming richness of dusk & Melbourne's wintry skies. Lynne has sensitively applied the paint & the bands of colour are reminiscent of the tranquil yet resonant paintings of Mark Rothko.

WHAT'S UNUSUAL ABOUT*(NEXT DOOR TO TATTERSALL'S)

FOR A START, ALTHOUGH THE CLOTHING IS VERY MUCH UP-TO-THE-MINUTE, THE SERVICE AT VM's is old-fashioned. WE TAKE TIME. WE ENJOY WHAT WE DO. You will probably be served by a DIRECTOR OF THE COMPANY. THE SWEATER OR JACKET HE SHOWS YOU WAS, QUITE LIKELY, RECENTLY HANDPICKED BY HIM IN MILAN OR PARIS.

CUSTOM TAILORING. If you'd like A SUIT OR SHIRT TO YOUR MEASURE, THE MAN WHO TAKES YOUR INSTRUCTIONS WILL USUALLY BE THE SAME TAILOR (EXPERIENCED AT VICE-REGAL LEVEL) WHO ACTUALLY CUTS THE GARMENT.

THERE'S MORE. Tell you NEXT MONTH.
